But I think that you will agree with me that this does not complete the toll of our duty. How are we to carry our goods to the empty markets of which I have spoken if we have not the certain and constant means of transportation upon which all profitable and useful commerce depends? And how are we to get the ships we need for the trade to develop about them? To come to the discouraged and all but destroyed merchant marine of the country, to retrace the steps by which we have, it seems almost deliberately, withdrawn our flag from the seas, except where

GAS COMPANY DECLARES TURNER AVOIDS FACTS

Says Statement Published Monday Was Unjust Attack on Company

Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, in city hall, there will be a second conference between members of council and representatives of the Atlanta Gas Light Company in reference to a reduction of gas rates. At this meeting the company is expected to answer a list of questions which were submitted to it by the members of council who took part in the first conference, held last Friday night.

The gas company on Tuesday issued the following statement in reply to the statement of City Electrician R. C. Turner, which was published in The Journal Monday:

"We ask your brief indulgence for a statement on a publication in Monday afternoon's issue of this paper.

"The usual assumption is that a public officer not only wears fittingly the dignity of his office, but also speaks authoritatively and with impartiality when he discusses matters of public interest. Your city electrician, Mr. R. C. Turner, by virtue of the office which he holds, is more in the public eye and ear than if he were a private citizen.

"Conducting his periodic foray against this company and striving to arouse prejudice and antagonism among the people, Mr. Turner has presumed to address you with neither authority nor impartiality.

"He has procured the publication of a statement and specious arguments to the present effort to arbitrate a reduction in gas rates.

"He has set himself, an officer of all the city's interests alike, to prosecute as a public service and a pay-making corporation, with no cleaner methods than those of scandal-mongers."

"He has said and written and published apparently anything that has occurred to him, without the slightest effort to support his assertions, and you have been patient and fair with us in our sincere effort to reveal the facts he misrepresented."

"In Monday's Journal a card signed by Mr. Turner was printed as news. No portion of it related to the matter of gas rates and, therefore, ordinarily it would not have invited reply from us."

"But its concluding paragraphs overstepped the line, you yourselves have shown in your statements. Those paragraphs would lead us for our statements of the truth and for having bought newspaper space in which to present them fully to you. Then those paragraphs went further. Over the signature of Mr. Turner, they heaped this company."

"The Atlanta Gas Light Company is no inanimate thing to be accused wantonly. It is essentially an organization of honest and honorable men known among all of you, and it is the true composite of their personalities. It is open to and unafraid of any honest, intelligent and reasonable investigation of its methods and affairs."

"We have met Mr. Turner's errors with truth. That is the evidence on which his effort is to be judged. We met him with the newspapers. We met him

PLAN TO FIND WORK FOR CITY'S UNEMPLOYED

Special Council Committee Will Confer With Mayor Tuesday Afternoon

Following the plea of organized labor and the Evangelical Ministers' association, which requested that work be done at once to give employment to men who have lost their jobs through the financial depression, a special committee of council will hold a conference with the mayor Tuesday afternoon.

Mayor Woodward said Tuesday morning he knows of no way that work can be started just now, but that he may find a small amount of money which can be utilized in this manner, after the aldermen board passes the resolution revoking all appropriations and placing the finances of the city in a lump sum to be controlled by the mayor and the chairman of the finance committee.

The amount of the last bond issue has been held by the city to buy material for sewer construction, the work to be done by the county convict, and the money is now unspent because the county has not had enough convicts to put on the work.

The money will have to be expended on specified sewers, and Captain Clayton says that by waiting for the county convicts to do the work the sewers can be constructed at one-third the expense necessary if free labor is employed.

However, by utilizing the bond money in this way work could be started that would give employment to 500 unskilled laborers. For instance, there is $25,000 unexpended in the Highland avenue sewer fund, on which the county is working, and Captain Clayton says that with free labor work on the sewer and of this sewer might be started.

The council committee appointed to devise means of putting the unemployed to work is composed of Captain Clayton, chairman, Humphrey, Hall and Smith and Alderman Kelley.

MRS. EUDORA WALTHALL BURIED IN WEST VIEW
The funeral of Mrs. Eudora Walthall, wife of W. P. Walthall, well known real estate dealer of Atlanta, who died suddenly Monday morning at her home, 220 Euclid avenue, was held at Sacred Heart church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment was in West View.

There, he sought a committee of council. We are meeting him there. He has threatened the committee with appeal to the railroad commission, and before council even has heard the conclusion he asserts the matter will be carried up to the state body. If it is, we will meet him again, there, with truth.

MOVE COTTON BALES AWAY FROM FIREWORKS

Fire Chief W. B. Cummings is urging the merchants who have bales of cotton placed on the streets, to remove them to some less exposed position before the Christmas holidays and the fire-work season.

Chief Cummings urges particularly that the bales of cotton be removed from the lobbies of hotels and stores and other places frequented by the public, as he says that there is a greater danger of a conflagration in those places.

This Is Fair Notice to All A Sale of 155 Suits

Of Such Worth, at Such Prices That We Can Call This the Best of the Season

This is our brief---
We have put on the racks one-hundred-fifty-five suits from our own stocks, and priced them in the way that Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. now and then do price things when it comes time to effect a clearaway.

If we are any judges of values, the clearaway will be quick and certain, and we will accomplish what we set about when we made these prices. And you who take this announcement to yourselves will profit richly.

For it is a far, far better thing we do than we have ever done---at this season. But the prices tell that.

$7.50---For $18.75 to $29.50 Suits. $11.50---For $25.00 to $35.00 Suits. $14.75---For $33.50 to $50.00 Suits

Long and medium long coats, plain and tunic skirts; gabardines, serges, broadcloths, cheviots, ripple cloths in navy, brown, green, black, a few in Copenhagen; from makers who for originality and smartness of styles keep the leadership among themselves.

But perhaps this, the judgment of the women of Atlanta tells better than anything else just what you may expect.---
When we had upwards of three hundred suits such as these we announced them at prices a third more than the prices above. These one hundred fifty-five are all that remain of that lot. Early choice will be best.

SHRINERS TO CELEBRATE IN AUDITORIUM TONIGHT

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary
Program One of Most Interesting in Years

The Atlanta auditorium has seen some brilliant and joyous parties in the brief years of its existence, but none has been as yet that will be the celebration Tuesday night, the twenty-fifth anniversary of Yaarab Temple, Ancient and Noble Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

The great hall is elaborately decorated with emblems of the order and with banners and American flags. The banners will wear full dress and fests and their ladies will be resplendent in evening gowns. The patrol of Yaarab temple will be fitted out in their gorgeous dress uniforms. Two brass bands will furnish the music. And there will be an abundance of refreshments.

The formal program of the evening will begin at 8 o'clock. Shriner and his lady assemble. The presentation of twenty-five survivors of the original 100 who organized Yaarab temple, escorted by Yaarab patrol and introduced by Past Potentate John A. Hynds.

Songs by anniversary chorus.
Fancy patrol drill.

Dr. Joseph L. He declined to give the church a definite answer, but officers of the institution, who are anxious for him to accept the call, are very optimistic and expect an affirmative answer from Dr. White next morning, when he is promised to write them his decision.

Calhoun St. School Is Robbed of Clock, B. I. and Graphophone

The pupils of Calhoun Street school did not march into the building Tuesday morning to the usual strains of "Tippecanoe," played on a graphophone. No school bell tolled the hour of 8:30, and no clock ticked in the eighth grade room.

For a burglar, or several burglars, entered the building Monday night and removed the graphophone, the bell and the clock, according to the police. The police think a wagon was used to haul away the loot; several neighbors think they remember hearing the bell ringing shortly late Monday night—this must have been when the thief was taking it down.

The burglars entered through a rear window. Monday night the police were told of a robbery in the home of Mrs. Joseph Kahn, Washington and Bass streets. Jewelry valued at $300 in said to have been stolen.

County Attorney

W. Tom Winn, vice chairman of the board of county commissioners, will succeed Tull C. Waters as chairman for 1915 when Mr. Waters' term expires January 1.

Luther Z. Rosser, for twenty years county attorney, will retire January 1. Mr. Rosser's reason is that he has had the place long enough, and now wants to step down and give it to someone else. Colonel Pomeroy, it is thought, will succeed Mr. Rosser. It is understood Colonel Pomeroy has three out of the five county commissioners pledged to him. The election of Mr. Rosser's successor will take place the first Wednesday in January.

Texas Minister Will Assume Pastorate of Druid Hills
Baptist Church in Jan.

When Dr. F. C. McConnell, pastor, of the First Baptist church of Waco, Tex., arrives here in January to take the pastorate of the Druid Hills Baptist church, which he has accepted, Atlanta will greet one of the most prominent Baptist ministers in the entire south.

Added to that, Atlanta will greet a native Georgian, for Dr. McConnell was born in the mountains of north Georgia and was educated at Hixson academy and Mercer university at Macon.

News that he had decided to come to Atlanta was received Monday in the following telegram to W. D. Greene, clerk of the Druid Hills church:

"Respected here today. Church unanimously declined to accept resignation. Will get it settled soon. It is my purpose to reach you January 1. F. C. McConnell."

In reaching this decision, Dr. McConnell is leaving the second largest Baptist church in Texas for one not recently organized and not yet firmly established, but with his rare vigor, prestige and magnetism, it is expected he will build it into a flourishing institution before he has been here long.

MAN WHO CHALLENGED JUDGE IS SOUGHT HERE

Atlanta policemen and detectives Tuesday were keeping their eyes open for C. G. Hutchinson, of Atlanta, who is wanted by Sheriff Ellis, of Hazzard, Ga., for contempt of court. Hutchinson is charged with writing insulting letters and sending insulting telegrams to Judge James R. Grant, of Hazzard, Ga., culminating with challenging the judge to a duel.

Baptist churches of the south, notably the First Baptist church of Lynchburg, Va.; the Calvary Baptist church, Kansas City, Mo., and for the last five years the First Baptist church of Waco, Tex.

Dr. McConnell is an ardent champion of the interests of the Baptist denomination. He was assistant corresponding secretary of the Baptist Home Mission board and also secretary of the same board, from which position he went to the pastorate of the Calvary Baptist church in Kansas City.

TECH NIGHT SCHOOL TO OPEN FOR WINTER DEC. 14

Registration for Term Which Will Close March 4 Began
Monday

Registration opened Monday morning for the winter term of the free night school of the Georgia School of Technology, and Prof. J. N. G. Nesbit, of the school, is already receiving many applications. The winter term opens next Monday, December 14, and runs through March 4. The registration, which has already begun, will continue through Thursday of this week.

Attendance at this school is practically free, as all the equipment is donated, free and the faculty at Tech give their services free. The only expense which the student has to undergo is an incidental $5 fee for lights and heat. There will be thirty-four subjects of instruction during the winter term, and the classes meet Mondays and Wednesdays or Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Value Distributing

To any man who observes, even in a casual way, the real value in the suit of clothes he is about to buy and don for service, the economy in a Muse purchase is apparent.

Such is the economy judged by a standard of service that steadily supports the purchase price.

Style is the one thing that makes people call you a good dresser. To be constantly well dressed style must have behind it and all around about it the substantial co-operation of good cloth.

Otherwise style is appallingly expensive.

A really good suit carries its own good style and advertises it not. Somehow it is "well born" and its every appearance is for gentility.

Such is the chief function of the Muse clothes service.

The unquestioned superiority of Muse wear has stamped it with a standing for character, a reward of merit and genuineness.

Every man can help prosperity along by looking the part. Come here for the truly Prosperous Suit and Overcoat and watch the result.

We offer you only the high-grade clothing which has ever proved the least expensive.

Such is value appraisalment.
